that said James E. should on or before the first day of May 1881 leave the Territory and not return there-
-to during the life of said sentence.

AND WHEREAS it has been further made to appear that subsequent to the granting of said pardon and while the said James E. was absent from this Terri-tory his parents were advised and informed that the conditions of said pardon were void and unconstitution-al, that relying upon and acting upon such advice and information, they requested and entreated the said James E. to return to this Territory; that acting upon such requests and entreaties the said James E. after-

To The Sheriff Of The County Of Yavapai, Territory Of Arizona: Greeting.

Whereas, at the June Term, A. D. 1887, of the District Court of the Third Judicial District in the Territory of Arizona, in and for the County of Yavapai, was duly tried and convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree in the killing of Samuel Glevenger, to which conviction the jury affixed the death penalty.

And Whereas, on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1887, the said court did adjudge the said John A. Johnson guilty of said crime of murder in the first degree, and sentenced him, the said John A. Johnson, to be hanged by the neck until he be dead.

And Whereas, James H. Wright, Judge of the said District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Arizona, in and for the County of Yavapai, did on the 9th day of July, A. D. 1887, command you, the sheriff of the County of Yavapai, in the Territory of Arizona, that you do on Friday, the 12th day of August, A. D. 1887, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon, and two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, proceed and carry into force and effect the judgment and sentence aforesaid, and him, the said John A. Johnson, hang by the neck until he be dead.

And Whereas, circumstances have transpired since the Court adjudged the said John A. Johnson guilty of the crime of murder in the first degree, and commanded the execution and carrying into effect the judgment and sentence aforesaid, which induces the belief that a postponement of said judgment and sentence may prove to be in the interest of public justice.

Now therefore, I, C. Meyer Zulick, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, by virtue of the authority in me vested do hereby grant a reprieve to the said John A. Johnson from the judgment and sentence of the Court as aforesaid, until Friday the 23d day of September, A. D. 1887, between the hours of ten o'clock
